Ankara

An old castle's ruins over the hills guard this city. One sight of its crumbling walls will have you hooked to the precincts of Ankara. It's famously dubbed as an international city for the fast road that it has taken towards sophistication and plays a welcome host to international tourists. It's dotted with parks, cafés, theatres, museums, art galleries, pubs and much more.

As Turkey's capital and one of the most loved tourist city, Ankara is at the helm of tourist activities in Turkey. You'll find it interesting, for it has a clear distinction between two worlds - old and new. Treat yourself to the architectural marvels that have a tinge of Roman, Byzantine and Ottoman arts at old Ankara, while open cafés await you at the newer Ankara. It's a perfect blend for travel enthusiasts.
