Yangon

Home to the marvelous Shwedagon Pagoda, Yangon is Myanmar’s proof of its devotion to Lord Buddha. The numerous spires of the golden pagoda is an artistic declaration of the many other sites that Yangon offers to its visitors.

A trip to Downtown Yangon will take you back to the colonial era. The old and partly in ruins structures that are reminiscences of the city's past will leave you with a nostalgic feeling. Jump back to the future with a ride in the circular train and experience the Burmese way of life and muse over one of the interesting spots in this city, Aung San Suu Kyi’s House, the great leader of the country. Some of the lesser-known pagodas like Botataung Paya and Mailamu Paya, which depicts Buddha's life through numerous statues will give your vacation a sense of intense serenity. Feel the flower power in Mahabandoola Garden, which is famous for its rose garden.
