Taipei

Located in Taipeh basin beside the Tamsui river with two mountain ranges on either side, Taipei is not as popular as Honkong or Tokyo in terms of favoured destinations. But visitors to this global city realise that Taipei is just as cosmopolitan and glamorous as any other metropolis, and are often pleasantly surprised by the city's unique charm.

Famous For: MetropolitaCity

Taipei is the political, economic and cultural hub of Taiwan. With an efficient transport system, Taipei is very well connected with the rest of the Taiwan island. Bursting with shopping marts, galleries, temples and town halls, the city showoff the Taiwan architecture. A shopper's paradise and a foodie's haven, Taipei also caters to the quieter souls. Abundant parks and museums are available here. Do check out the hot springs and the Dadaocheng area, which is the historic heart of Taipei.

Lili Restaurant & Bar is a bar cum restaurant run by a Taiwanese couple. Its run by the owners named Lily Wen and her husband Patrick Lee. The ambiance is colorful and peppy with paintings with slogans like “Time to Have a Drink” and others with political faces on them sharing a beer. These quirky paintings are painted by the owner himself Patrick. The food is delicious and the drinks are decently priced.
